Joni Hentzen Daniels MSN, RN, CEN, CCRN

Joni has been an ED nurse since 1983. She began ED employment in a 22-bed hospital with a 4 bed ED. Since that time she has worked in large tertiary receiving facilities, university-based teaching hospitals as well as community-based hospitals. Joni also worked as a flight nurse for 3 years. She received her Master's in Nursing as a Clinical Nurse Specialist in Emergency Care in 2000. Joni has served on the editorial board for the Journal of Emergency Nursing and recently was a contributing author to the 3rd edition of Emergency Nursing Procedures. An experienced speaker, Joni has taught TNCC, ENPC, Triage and CEN Review Courses for 15 years. Her lectures are described as comprehensive and her lecture style is "energetic", "enthusiastic", and "passionate". Joni is active in ENA and has served as International Faculty for Trauma and Pediatric services. She is currently the immediate past President of the Texas ENA. Joni is currently working as an ED consultant for a corporation with 75 hospitals in 22 states. She is recognized for her strengths in ED operations, process improvements and staff development through education.
